Re: Ex Parte Communication on Commercial Unitary Equipment Rulemaking

On February 5, 2015, AHRI staff, Industry Representatives and Energy Efficiency Advocates met to discuss Department of Energy (DOE) rulemakings for commercial furnaces and unitary large equipment. The meeting was held at AHRI offices in Arlington, Virginia. A list of attendees is provided below.

At the meeting, the group discussed issues pertaining to the rulemakings and the ASRAC negotiated rulemaking process with John Cymbalsky, DOE, and representatives from Navigant Consulting and Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. The group also discussed issues raised in the public comments and possible topics for further analysis and discussion.
